The Idaho Community Action Network has brought together faith and human rights groups to form a new campaign, aimed at welcoming immigrants to Idaho.

The ads will be on bus stops around Boise.

estimates 60 to 80 thousand immigrants in the state.

ICAN estimates there are 60 to 80 thousand immigrants in the state and says we have a long way to go in our acceptance of immigrants.

"The current climate right now around race and immigration in Idaho does not reflect our values. It is a climate of fear, of division, of polarization," says ICAN's Antonina Robles.
